

Add/Drop Period

Students should consult the Academic Calendar for add/drop dates. Any classes dropped during the add/drop period will not be entered on the student's academic record/transcript. However, after the add/drop period, a student will receive an academic grade for every course for which the student is registered, whether the student attends the class or not.