

INFORMATION FOR PROSPECTIVE INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

Thank you for your interest in Horry-Georgetown Technical College. The College offers a variety of one- and two-year associate degree, diploma, and certificate programs, including university transfer programs, at three campus locations in Conway, Myrtle Beach, and Georgetown, South Carolina.

Housing and Transportation

Horry-Georgetown Technical College is a commuter college and does not provide dormitories or housing on campus. Students are responsible for securing their own housing. A public transportation system is available in the area, but its schedule may not be compatible with a student's classes or area of residence. It is recommended that an international student consider purchasing or leasing a vehicle while a student in the United States.

Expenses

To help you plan financially, following is an estimated breakdown of expenses for 9 months, this includes two semesters tuition for a full-time international student

HGTC Tuition/Fees (2 semesters)	$8620
Books	1560
Room/Board	9240
Transportation	2,620
Misc.	1,208
TOTAL	$23,248

The above cost breakdown does not cover all contingencies, and international students are not eligible for federal/state financial aid or most on-campus employment. In addition, it is strongly recommended that an international student purchase adequate health insurance while a student in the United States.

After an international applicant is admitted to Horry-Georgetown Technical College, he/she will be notified and requested to pay a two-semester tuition deposit of $8,620 (This amount includes $4,310 for each semester). After the tuition deposit is received, the applicant will be issued a SEVIS Form 1-20 by Horry-Georgetown Technical College. This is the form a student will need in order to request an F-1 Student Visa. The tuition deposit may be paid by MasterCard, Visa, or Discover card or by a check or a money order payable by a U.S. bank. The tuition deposit is refundable if the international student does not enroll in classes at Horry Georgetown Technical College.

NOTE: Tuition deposit should not be paid unless requested.
