DISTINGUISHED PATRON AWARD RECIPIENTS

Natasha Hanna

Natasha Hanna is a Myrtle Beach trial attorney, entrepreneur, and civic leader whose career spans nearly two decades of legal practice and public service across South Carolina. A native of Virginia's New River Valley, she earned her undergraduate degree from Coastal Carolina University, a paralegal degree from Horry-Georgetown Technical College, and her J.D. from the University of South Carolina School of Law. In 2010, she founded Natasha Hanna Law and grew the firm from a one-attorney, 700-square-foot office into a 7,500-square-foot general practice with a team of ten, handling matters ranging from real estate and personal injury to criminal defense and complex civil litigation.

Natasha's leadership extends well beyond her firm. A trustee of Coastal Carolina University since 2009, she was elected Chair of the Board of Trustees in 2025 and led the presidential search that selected the university's fourth president. Under her board tenure, CCU has achieved record enrollment, maintained a seven-year tuition freeze, launched new degree programs, and received eighteen consecutive clean financial audits. She also serves as Vice Chair of the Myrtle Beach Regional Economic Development Corporation, where she plays a central role in shaping the area's economic future.

Her commitment to professional and civic service runs deep: Natasha is a past President of the Horry County Bar Association and the Coastal American Inn of Court, a former instructor at Horry-Georgetown Technical College, and a former Commissioner on the South Carolina Commission on Higher Education, appointed by former Governor Nikki Haley. She has been recognized as one of the region's 50 Most Influential People—a reflection of her enduring dedication to elevating the Grand Strand through law, education, and community leadership.

Clifford "Cliff" Jones

Clifford "Cliff" Jones is an educator with more than 20 years of experience spanning the classroom, school leadership, and district administration. He currently serves as Superintendent of Horry County Schools, where he leads one of South Carolina's largest and fastest-growing districts with a focus on student achievement, literacy, and future-ready pathways.

As superintendent, Mr. Jones has driven record-setting outcomes, including the highest graduation rate in district history and significant gains in college and career readiness. He is the architect of the district's #RiseWithReading initiative, a community-wide movement aimed at ensuring 95% of students read on grade level by 2030. His leadership emphasizes the Science of Reading, strong instructional systems, and a commitment to high expectations for every student.

Prior to his role in Horry County, Mr. Jones served as Chief of Staff for Fulton County Schools in Georgia, where he oversaw key district functions including curriculum, instruction, safety, and strategic initiatives. He also held roles as Zone Superintendent, Executive Director of Accountability, and Chief Academic Officer. During his tenure, Fulton County achieved its highest graduation rate, expanded dual enrollment opportunities, and saw a significant reduction in schools identified on state accountability lists. Mr. Jones is known for his focus on leadership development, operational clarity, and building systems that prioritize students. He is LETRS® certified (Language Essentials for Teachers of Reading and Spelling) and holds advanced degrees from Kennesaw State University, Georgia State University, and the University of St. Andrews in Scotland.
