Chairperson

The College utilizes standing and ad hoc committees and councils to provide a mechanism for faculty and staff to be involved in the process of continuous improvement of programs and services; and to provide a channel through which faculty may exercise their participation and jurisdiction in the academic and workforce development of the College. All committees and councils are appointed by, and serve under the authority of the President and operate in accordance with the policies and procedures, and administrative rules and regulations of the College. They also function within the operating guidelines, which have been established for the specific committee and council.
