I. Purpose

To provide procedures for use of College facilities by employees, external groups and organizations, and for any use other than that of an institutional nature or purpose.

II. Procedures

A. The College President is ultimately responsible for the use of any College facilities. For practical purposes, the College President and/or designee delegates authority to either of their administrative assistants who will solely be responsible for:

1. Reviewing and approving all external use of facilities;

2. Determining the availability of facilities;

3. Scheduling events and use of facilities; and

The President and/or designee may seek the input of various Cabinet members in determining whether to justify external use of facilities, or reaching other decisions pursuant to such use.

B. Use of College Buildings and Facilities by External Parties or Users

1. Rental/use fees will be charged unless waived in writing by the College President and/or designee.
a) City, county, state governmental agencies, public service events and groups/organizations that have a direct association with the educational program or support of the college, may use the facilities on a space available basis at a reduced rate up to and including no charge during times when the College is open, provided participants are not charged a registration fee. The President or designee will determine the rate charged to governmental entities. The College President or designee must approve any discount.

b) Facilities may be used for political meetings and other campaign related purposes provided full rental/use fees be charged.

2. Any external user of College buildings and facilities will be charged a fee unless a reduced rate or waiver is negotiated and approved by the College President or designee. Users of college facilities will be financially responsible for all damage to property or injury to persons arising out of the use permitted, and may be required to provide a security deposit. The user must provide appropriate insurance that meets state minimum limits if required by circumstances.

3. Kitchen facilities may be available with consent of the President or designee. Special luncheons will be coordinated through the President or designee.

4. Rights are reserved by the Horry-Georgetown Technical College Commission and/or the President to revoke permission for external use of buildings and facilities, without liability, should such action be deemed necessary.

5. Specific activities prohibited by the College, include but are not limited to those that:

   a) Conflict or interfere with College activities and the learning experience.

   b) Involve fundraising campaigns except as permitted by the Horry-Georgetown Technical College Commission, the President, or designee.

   c) Espouse theories or doctrines subversive to the laws of the United States, or any political subdivision thereof; advocating governmental changes by violence.

   d) Formal instructional activities conducted by another organization, which grants credit or certification or CEUs, and for which fees are collected and are in direct competition with the college offerings.

   e) Are not consistent with the College’s mission.

6. Any advertisement or promotional materials for meetings must be approved in advance by the College President or designee.
7. The use of any college facilities or equipment for production or process development for businesses or for personal gain is not permitted. To use any College facility or its equipment for production of goods or services that will result in personal or economic gain in any way is prohibited.

   a) Businesses may use facilities and equipment for product development and business support functions under the guidance of Horry-Georgetown Technical College staff or faculty. Businesses are responsible for supplying the engineering work and must work with students and faculty during product development.

   b) Each individual arrangement requires a contractual agreement to be approved by the President or designee.

C. Scheduling of Facilities

1. Scheduling of Academic Facilities

   Normal scheduling for all activities is between the hours of 7:00 AM and 10:00 PM Monday through Friday, except holidays. Events scheduled on other days or between 10:00 PM and 7:00 AM are considered special hours and scheduling of such special activities must be coordinated with the President or designee.

2. The President's designee will be solely responsible for scheduling all external use of facilities.

3. Organizations reserving facilities will be sent a copy of the Facilities Use Agreement.

III. General

A. The College will consider the rental of facilities by external organizations whose activities are in keeping with the mission of the College. Within these parameters, the College will not rent specialized equipment or rooms, (i.e. nursing labs, computers, etc., libraries, a private offices and secure areas). Contracted external organizations are not allowed to partner with additional external organizations without the expressed, written consent of the President or designee.

B. To ensure all members and organizations within the community have equal access to the College facilities, and depending on availability, Horry-Georgetown Technical College may need to limit the use of its facilities to a 6-month period during the fiscal year.

C. Organizations renting College facilities must conduct activities that are orderly; lawful; not of a nature to incite others to disorder; not restrictive due to race, creed, color, national origin, sex, or age; and not intended to require a paid admission fee.
D. Should the College incur property damage because of facility use by another organization; the cost to repair the damage will be assessed against the using organization.

E. Continued use of a College facility by any organization will be contingent upon the organization’s taking proper steps to protect the College’s property, to ensure complete safety, to observe fire and other safety ordinances, to ensure full compliance with this Policy and Procedure, and to reimburse the College for previous use.

F. Horry-Georgetown Technical College is not equipped to provide a telephone nor provide non-emergency telephone message service.

G. Public Safety will unlock doors to reserved space. If the room is locked upon arrival, do not move to another room. Please contact the Public Safety Office at their appropriate location.

H. Alcoholic beverages on College property is limited for external individuals or groups, refer to Policy 4.1.11 and Procedure 4.1.11.1.

I. Modifications to College facilities will not be made. Our rooms are often used several times each day, therefore, in order to have them ready for each group, please ensure:

   All materials should be removed at the end of your function. If you are using a room for several days please remove all materials from the tables and leave them in one corner of the room. The College is not responsible for materials left in rooms.

   All trash should be placed in the proper receptacles. If you anticipate that your group will generate a large amount of trash, please bring your own trash bags.

J. College facilities will not be available for use on College holidays unless approved by the President or designee. A listing of those holidays is available from the Human Resources Department.
K. To avoid damage to wall coverings and finishes, no posters or other signage are to be taped, stapled or affixed to any surface in the buildings without prior approval of the President or designee.

L. Animals are prohibited on campus. Service Animals are exempt from this prohibition.

M. Organizations using the facilities must not consider Horry-Georgetown Technical College as a cosponsor for advertising, media or other purposes unless expressly permitted by the College.

N. The College is not able to provide expendable items such as pens, papers, flip charts, copy machine services, A/V cables or other needs.

IV. Indemnification

Any organization using College property shall hold harmless the Horry-Georgetown Technical College, its Area Commission and the individual members thereof, and any College officials or employees, from and against any loss, damage, liability or expense that may arise during, or be caused in any way by, such occupancy or use of College property.

V. College’s Right to Cancel

The College reserves the right to cancel authorized use of the College’s facilities when considered to be in the best interest of the College or that serves a compelling state interest.

VI. American Disabilities Act (ADA) Requirements

Organizations using College facilities will be responsible for providing any ADA accommodations for their event beyond what the College provides.

VII. Payment of Rental Fees and Charges

The renting organization shall reimburse the College in accordance with the terms of the rental agreement between the organization and the College. Payment for renting the facilities shall be made in advance of the event. The renting organization shall make checks payable to Horry-Georgetown Technical College.

VIII. Schedule of Fees and Charges

The President or designee in conjunction with the Business Office will develop and maintain a schedule of fees and charges for use of College facilities that are subject to change at any time.

IX. Exceptions
In any situation not conforming to this Procedure, the issue will be referred to the President or designee for a decision.
