Chairperson

Horry-Georgetown Technical College operates on an open admission policy as required by the 1976 Code of Laws of South Carolina, as amended. Horry-Georgetown Technical College makes every effort to minimize geographic, financial, and scholastic barriers to the post-secondary programs and services offered by the technical colleges. As such, the College admits all qualified individuals who meet appropriate academic age and verified legal presence requirements.

Horry-Georgetown Technical College maintains open admission to fulfill the educational mission of the College and to promote achievement of individuals with varied potential. Open admission supports the College's commitment to assess student potential and provide developmental education or appropriate referrals as necessary.
