Due to the size of the student body of the College, the complexity of schedules, and room locations, the College has established the following telephone message policy:

Classes will be interrupted and messages delivered to students in cases of extreme emergencies only (i.e., severe family illness or death). Public Safety will screen all such calls, and the nature of the emergency must be stated before the student will be contacted.