Horry-Georgetown Technical College recognizes the importance of student clubs, organizations, and affiliations (herein referred to as “student organizations”). The general purpose of these student organizations is to provide the students with opportunities outside of the classroom to develop and grow. Therefore, students are encouraged to create new student organizations and to join existing student organizations. However, all student organizations must submit an application to register through the Director of Student Engagement.