Chairperson

Horry-Georgetown Technical College may provide scholarships through Educational Fee Waivers to qualified students. Scholarships will be consistent with the State Board for Technical and Comprehensive Education's (SBTCE) Educational Fee Waiver Policy Number 3-2-205 and Procedure Number 3-2-205.1, and up to the total four percent (4%) waiver total.

The Commission shall authorize the College President or their designee to determine the areas of scholarship for application of this fee waiver provision, consistent with State Board Policy and Procedures.

The President shall provide an annual report to the Area Commission on the allocation of these fee waivers for qualified students, and the Area Commission may choose to advise the President on alternative or additional areas of scholarship.
